THE Daily Bulletin

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But established for the benefit of all.

FRIDAY, JAN. 24, 1890.

The BULLETIN is not disposed to "temporarily withdraw its motto," on the suggestion of the Advertiser, on account of one of its editors being "a candidate for election to the House of Representatives."

"Pledged to neither sect nor party," etc., is our motto. The fact that an editor of a paper is a candidate for the Legislature does not pledge that paper to sect or party, nor does the absence of pledge debar a paper from supporting what it believes to be right in any party.

Some small-minded men in this community—and probably men of the same stamp may be found in any community—regulate their friendship by their politics; that is, they regard others as friends when those others "accord" with them in political sentiment, but when the "political accord" is wanting they are regarded and treated as enemies. At the present time illustrations of this fact are abundant. It is a pity that all men cannot "differ and agree to differ" on mere matters of opinion, and still be friends.

Our "respectable" morning contemporary has been floundering through America, France, and Germany, and has his mind seriously exercised about Lincoln, Boulanger, and Bismarck. Great countries and great men all. But Lincoln is dead and Bismarck and Boulanger are in Europe. They are not here, any of them, nor anybody like them. We have neither a Lincoln nor a Bismarck, either in or out of office, at the helm or to place there to steer the ship, nor a Boulanger to fear.

We simply have two so-called parties, putting up two tickets for the Legislature, the majority of those on each ticket holding similar views, and being honestly desirous of promoting the public welfare. This is about the situation.

Yes, the Advertiser is about right when it says that "the BULLETIN cannot contain its mingled emotions of pity and contempt for the men who are so narrow-minded and prejudiced as to suppose that their political opponents are deluded;" but we did not suppose that our contemporary was to be classed with that particular description of people. As its editor is a gentleman who has seen a bit of the world beyond the Hawaiian Islands and the United States, it was natural to suppose that his mind would not be restricted by the narrow prejudices of less favored individuals. But the mistaken impression has been removed by the Advertiser's declaration that it "happens to share this very prejudice." Our "mingled emotions of pity and contempt" are now active towards our respectable contemporary.

"Publius" gives a little "campaign advice" in the Advertiser. We consider it good advice, and therefore invite attention thereto. "Saying hard things of one another," says the writer, "will never make men popular in this community, and will never add to their political influence."

The property qualification for a voter for Noble is the possession of "taxable property in this country of the value of not less than three thousand dollars over and above all encumbrances, or shall have actually received an income of not less than six hundred dollars during the year next preceding his registration for such election." The question has been asked: Does a man who regularly receives in cash $45 per month with board and residence fulfill the income requirement? We should say he does. His board and residence are furnished him in lieu and as an equivalent of cash, and its value has to be added to the $45, which would certainly bring that sum up to more than $50 per month. A man so circumstanced reports having been refused registration, as not meeting the requirement of law.

LIGHT ON TAXES.

EDITOR BULLETIN.—A communication in your issue of Jan. 6, signed "Non Nobis Solum," relating to taxes, from tables, doubtless published in the Hawaiian Annual for 1890, was such an evident error from unfamiliarity with the subject, that I thought the writer would see and acknowledge his mistake on a second glance at the tables used. Instead of this, however, I find political capital is made out of his alleged discovery of "a deficit to be accounted for in some way of $135,000" by one who a few days previous published the boast that "the Workingmen's party proposed to win by honorable tactics." It therefore becomes necessary to unravel Non Nobis Solum's figures for the enlightenment of those whom he has unintentionally, I trust, led astray.

If N. N. S. has been a resident of these islands during the period he has taken the tax figures for, (1886-88) he has forgotten the general business depression experienced throughout the islands, which fully accounts for the shrinkage of values of real and personal property, as shown in the assessment table (page 30) of $3,027,487 in 1887, and $3,872,848 in 1888, from those of 1886.

The figures taken by your discoverer as the taxes for 1886, viz. $417,103, (from Annual Internal Taxes, page 31), are the sum total of all taxes: including real and personal property, poll, school, road, etc. Its proportion for real and personal property at the 1 of 1 per cent rate that year would have been $262,163 if collections had been all made as per values assessed, but this does not appear to be the case.

These errors, then, of N. N. S. explodes his basis of a $135,000 deficit in the taxes of 1888. But what are the facts?

The assessed value of real and personal property in 1888, throughout the islands was $31,082,199. The 1 per cent tax thereon, if all collected, would have been $310,822, but, as in other years, appeals from, and errors in, assessing same properties to two and sometimes three parties, we find a shrinkage again here; still, in the result, a perceptible gain. If the biennial term figures are taken they show as follows, more clearly:

1885, Assmnts, real and	$33,871,872
1886, Assmnts, real and	$34,955,947
Total assessed value 2 yrs.	$68,826,919
Against this value there was collected	$ 489,502
Other taxes, viz: poll, school, road, dog, carriage, etc.	322,666
Total taxes for biennial term, 1886	$ 812,168
1887, Assmnts, real and	$31,927,569
1888, Assmnts, real and	$31,082,199
Total assessed value 2 yrs.	$63,009,739
A shrinkage of $9,817,169 from the previous biennial term.
Against the assessed property value there was collected	$ 552,336
(A gain of $62,834 over the former period).
Other taxes, viz: poll, school, road, dog, carriage, etc.	333,230
Total taxes for biennial term, 1888	$ 885,566
Or a total gain over the former period of $73,398.

If Mr. "not merely for ourselves" desires clearer facts, the Finance Office will doubtless aid him in any honest search.

FLOODS ON KAUAI.

Produced by Heavy Rains—Much Property Damaged—Loss of Life.

The steamer Kaula, Capt. Haglan, arrived from Kauai this morning, bringing news of disastrous floods on that island. Rain, falling in such torrents as to make the mountain sides appear enveloped in sheets of water, caused streams to overflow with very damaging effects.

At Nawiliwili C. W. Spitz's carriage house and part of his dwelling were carried away, while the provisions and dry goods in his store suffered heavy damage. What remains of his house is groyed up with ropes. A native's house occupied by a man named McLean was carried away, and the bridge at Nawiliwili destroyed.

The dam at Lihue, built by Hon. H. A. Widemann a score or two of years ago, was swept away, and water rose several feet in the mill, damaging 700 or 800 bags of sugar. Bridges were destroyed at Koloa and Hanalei, also several Chinese stores carried off. At Kapaia four Chinamen were carried to sea in a store. Two of them escaped, but the other two were drowned. Part of the house, a trunk, and other effects were picked up by the steamer James Makee.

The steamer Mikahala attempted to land a load of lumber at Nawiliwili, but four of her boats towing the lumber drifted to sea. The steamer going after them succeeded in recovering the boats and some of the lumber.

Two and rice patches were devastated in many places, and the ground is heaped with debris. Telephones as well as bridges being down, news of the freshets from other parts of the island cannot be obtained.

Valuable Real Estate

AT AUCTION.

In the Business Center of Honolulu!

The attention of Capitalists, Trustees and Real Estate Investors, is called to one of the most important sales of Real Estate, for business blocks, ever held in Honolulu; the property being situated in the heart of the city and bounded by Nuuanu, Hotel and Bethel Streets.

The undersigned has received instructions to offer for sale by auction, at his Salesroom, Queen street,

On Saturday, Jan. 25, 1890,

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON.

The whole of that VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY, known as the

"BOOTH ESTATE,"

(Excepting only the corner lot on Nuuanu and Hotel streets, owned by Mr. James Olds)

Containing in all 16,000 Square Feet.

This is the most compact and desirable piece of property in Honolulu, and being situated in the heart of the retail business quarter of the city, between the two main arteries of traffic, (Fort and Nuuanu streets), leading to and from the wharves and harbor, it will have a value for all time, and therefore holds out unusual inducements to capitalists, as a remunerative and permanent investment.

The main frontages of this fine property are 40 feet on Nuuanu street, 93 feet on Hotel street and 125 feet on Bethel street, which three streets have been recently widened by the Government to 40 feet each, and finely macadamised and graded throughout, rendering them the finest thoroughfares in the city. A new street of 12 feet width, which runs through the center of the property from Nuuanu to Bethel streets, has been donated by the owner of the block, and this will give additional street frontage of 195 feet on one side of the new street and 91 feet on the other, to all the lots to be sold, leaving no lot without a valuable street frontage and to some of them very desirable and valuable street corners.

Another advantage of this fine property as an investment, is its excellent sanitary conditions, and being on the highest part of the city, makai of Hotel street, it will have excellent drainage for buildings erected thereon, and being of sufficient elevation, permits the construction of deep cellars, on account of being beyond the reach of tide water.

The block has been subdivided into building lots, numbering 1 to 12 as can be seen on a large new survey map, now on view at my Salesroom.

The title to the property is perfect. Terms of sale are one third cash, one third one year and one third two years, with interest at 6 per cent per annum.

An examination of this property is solicited, and is confidently recommended as a permanently remunerative investment.

For fuller particulars and information apply to
